Dear Harry,

I arrived at 1.25 about 15 minutes late.

Dear Father Barry translated that what he wished to see us for was to know what turns & how we stood with Parnell. I stated the case and he said he had received a letter from P also giving them a hint if he had received yesterday he would not have desired my presence

He could not say what they would or could do but would write me by Tuesday next. I pushed him to let us know if possible tomorrow. He said he'd get it the very he has done, great deal journey & rain &c &c. I will trust him hard tomorrow hours in the afternoon.

I will send a note to Bushnell asking to see them at 9.30 A.M. tomorrow

I have been trying to rest myself this afternoon. Walked up Fifth Avenue to Park and then rode down in elevated to hotel. We have nothing to complain of the avenue itself, the equipages and the ladies.

If I return tomorrow I do not know yet what train but probably the four or six o'clock

My dear Papa & Mamma,

We received your telegram at 12.30 PM. Matters yesterday took the form of this.

We have the cash in our possession this is all right & so is Mr Pamelee.

On 6th day when Pamelee and we looked over the various lots we discovered two more pieces missing and, 1st Mo. 2d, 6th day we went over our books and yesterday looked over Cook's book & found that it bore out what we said, the pieces making amounting to about 700. we claimed & them that we those they do not deliver they must either pay their value & deduct it, or supply them, either by that they do not know where they are and therefore cannot supply them, neither would they sign a paper stating that if they found them they would turn them over to us. This to us looks as if they had them and meant to cheat us out of them.

They say do not take the roll, and you had better give the matter up. Mr. Bushnell offered us $5 to give him our receipt and relinquish my right, this we will not do.
A bigger fraud we never experienced. Pannelee says he will stand the loss me paying him $300 for some of the prizes. this we concluded with him,
He is greatly annoyed at this fraud, Pannelee consents to our changing on the catalogues.
Pannelee went to Boston last eve. Carrying matters in our hands. Bushnell will not give us any satisfaction, and we fear some

The way the Bushnells act is simply this, we won't do anything but deliver the ones they've shown on Friday, and then they stand & we are powerless. Seeing would not pay. No argument as to it being proper to make reduction has any effect.

We will make a strong charge to-morrow, telling them that we know they have them at their command if not in the house. and demand the delivery of the whole. They state this is the whole collection as left to them. The pieces missing were we think taken out by the old B. as we have not them on our list.

We remember his saying they belong to his dark horse, ~~but through they were by Middleby~~ Sale but they were not. They are not the chief pieces but are always six worth 75 to 100 each + some four or five large ones ~~We can with all courtesy shut us~~

Pannelee would not lose the collection for these pieces, as if it went to a sale he evidently fears he would as from what he says he has apparently some bitter rivals in Boston.

We will have to look at it as the collection costing us 700 more but this does not take from our estimate made on the sheets

We are both well considering what we have gone through.

It cleared here at ten o'clock this morning.

Dear Harry.

Ella is quite comfortable today and this morning at 9 o'clock I took her in the rolling chair to the horse-car the second street below and rode out to Fairhaven and return. She enjoyed the ride greatly. During the previous two mornings she had tried to go in her chair but the attack was passed off before the others.

I intend to return to Philadelphia on Second-day, leaving Father and Mother here.

I would like very much for the coins you have sent me by Ward. I am quite anxious to see them and although I shall write no fully what I think of them - no doubt I will be pleased. You have certainly secured many and unexpected bargains in N.S. coins!

Don't want Freebie Lippincott died - was [illegible] upon [illegible]

I see she wears a watch, a present of hers, of the sort and the beginning of another dark cross.
Evidently, it proves that you were not in the state called love about either of them.
You might send me a letter or two occasionally but no letter & never then a postal card of about Wednesday sometimes mid week mail. Here I have written letter after letter and we have had but two or three hasty brief scribbles from Shanghai giving no account of voyage - a hasty one from Yokohama & London by same mail and Tuesday one from London dated the 10th a week after you got there and a postal of written in pencil Kanagawa - saying he had not time to write.
Letter does not count. Two or three words on shells.
We heard of the [illegible] to Cairo

I hope you will not hurry and have and visit the exhibition and [illegible] a little [illegible]. You worked very hard too hard in order to have done so much business in a week.

I do not think there is any change in regard to Mattie's condition She has

The Coats of my Children are pretty particular in the 1794, 1795, 96, 97, 1806, 808 the last is the finest specimen we have ever had - I am the 1806 one of the same stock one should like for I like not counterfeit nor dislike me as the LIBERTY is weak access to Letter. I have not yet in Photograph to compare it, but from memory. The 1797 one is original but has an inferior head does not equal in likeness the 1806 one and 1808 is the worst of all. If you see ... Pugsley ... Pugsley, ... will ... letter ... will ... [redacted]

I send this letter to London as you may be detained in Amsterdam about pictures & sale of which Bon has sent me copy if you go by Paris it will be there on 11th

H. Lowe as informed in letter to Marksamm in Liverpool a week ago. I guess he will find he is late for the fair!

I will send you more money as soon as I can but if you need it don't hesitate to cable & I will raise it.

Don't buy more unless U.S. snaps as we might not get tied up too tight. These "Jon Americains" are miserable gentlemen collectors to sell upon. Never met a more suspicious lot down town. Will not take the Elizabeth. Must see it & so you mustn't 45 & write him the price is based on actual value in England not on your bid or price in our sale &c &c. When I sent it to London it was superior.

I note you will pay Rappaport for amendment into the calls for £35 I made for English approvals will only leave you £10 after £75 I have sent.

Sell all you can in London & if you get a good price for the Tolson collection in England sell it don't if any more has moved just so much into the seller

I note to Mr Watson in Paisley & others £200 for 2½ loan

I write this last sheet to R.C. as I cannot see best mail left at 8.30 [illegible] not known

Dear Hally,

[illegible] me [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

2 did not understand was meant in it.

I went to the Union & Western Union Tel. Co and at 7.30 P.M. called

Chapman, Mack

Gaylord Sidebury, Connecticut

Graham. No.

meaning that Graham had not received & had [illegible] knew anything about it.

I asked that you would if you could find out if they sending out a [illegible] receipt of any, in total, at once as and if they can not have receipt of it that you would go back to Langham & search there as it might not have been forwarded to Adelphi but it was not sent from there & some other room, if so search would be made. [illegible]

I then went from there to 356 Fourth Ave.

At 220, I went to see [illegible] I understood at the hotel. Manager told me that he had.

"Arrived Jan 2nd 7.30 P.M. and left for Room 14, sailed next day the 3rd."

He said that if you had written from the hotel it would go in the bag. [illegible] Pleasure. [illegible] room. He [illegible]

3. And there was a strong probability that it was left at London and I made a finding of cabling again "no Langham", when I recollected that you write from there & undoubtedly inquired about it.

Get name of new Exchange at hotel in that date & hunt down.

If a man walks off with a package of another party-two possibly thro' mistake of identity it is theft & he is liable & punishment and call in the police. Of course, don't follow him to the Antipodes.

Were the hotel people aware of the value? Any danger of theft there in arranging a false delivery?

Notify the dealers. Get duplicate bills. I was about to return these box but think I had better keep them in case they might turn up & the effect & me here. I may inform other dealers that an English dealer requests me to notify that the like of coins have been stolen & will if they should be offered that they trace the person & inform me.

If the lot is lost-it is beyond recall and do not worry and try & discard it-it will not kill-do it's absurd & make the matter serious

The Stats of the bills of missing crime in package are as follows.

" Christie Manuscript Ward		£ 40 18

The afforwds may be subject to more than 5% — perhaps 10% — The bills are all in transfer [illegible] to the dealers hands & [illegible] Even if the party who got the packages here or elsewhere if we trace him down he may disgrace whilst if sent found the value turned cause him to [illegible] appropriate.

Dear Harry,

[illegible]

not lost!

I expect you got two suits [illegible] each coat vest + trousers in Dublin + had only time to put down the price in estimate of your cash in date containing draft £65. Since ascertained you said you would not get them as I could know how you could make money easier for in a month after you return you would save £50 & Tailor + endeavour which would cost £9-10 instead of £25-27. Fashions before upset plans subdued entirely - nothing heard.
Fletcher sends 3457 wants coins. Blanchestown waits in reply & letter that we will be glad to see some German Coins. Don't worry about Baker - I will fix it.

I will of course DD meet them at wharf.
John Lahaun landed at 6 P.M. Saturday and made 8.20 train home. I will go over to N.Y. in the morning

I think I would speak of china & customs' duty - claim as household effects - not for sale I would pay duty without worrying.
I would be impossible to I now know we found
I don't care

Sabbath pm. Mail closes 11 PM in City of New York. Rain moderate now & did not get out. I wrote three letters & one long one to Rest & Thus all known Eagle stock on the returns. My camera was delivered yesterday with leather bellows as I wanted it. If Mother feels like & wants to, please write Emile Barnes as Eagle-they will look it up and lose no chance to get a finish of her camera is beautiful as fine as possible and Eastman to make the finest in this country. Have other good rest regardless from those sent but weather too sad & dismal. The little fairies near Mother was taken in carriage in Park but the afternoon had turned, after we went out, densely cloudy & with yellow light as road like mist thickens

I showed my cousin to photograph the sculptures this afternoon. The Pergamene altar "only for my work
- Greek sculpture". It was wonderful speech as they have not yet published their monumental work in 4 volumes.

I recollected today that you have never mentioned having received the Greek coin selection. I sent one wrote them requesting that it was probably an oversight of yours.

I am very pleased to read for the second time "the coins you send in are splendid". Good then.
I have some magnificent things, high

Thy last letter gave me great pleasure in many ways, but specially in telling me thy cold was gone. I was uneasy at its continuing so long, we are very glad that art enjoying thyself, and I do hope it will do thee much good, but the time begins to feel long, yet I am not impatient, and as thou art there I wish thee to have all the pleasure thou canst, I am thankful thee has got rid of the Charles's, I think they have shown a very unlady like behaviour, I feel that would have ended in many little Harry Stouffers, I pity Mrs Hall in having her nice home broken up. our love to them, I am very grateful for all thy prayers I think unites dear Harry, and long to see thy face again my precious son, but I was so sore after my journey I was unable to write on 3rd. day, the transfers were very severe, Specially going along the docks in N.Y. but I am reciuiting to day, and appetite better, & I so glad to get home to my nice room & bed and have splendid vegetables, which I enjoy & fruit also. Hannah sent to Atlantic 4th day. Papa sent and saw her fixed well.

Sue how to thee, that was a very pretty card; did thee get many at Exposition? I will send for J Graham to come & see me, as he saw thee so recently. I dont know what to say about Florence, I think she "has a warm heart", but these we must not let a single trait balance all other considerations, and I fear thee does not love her sufficiently for a wife. She is a high church girl now & this is not thy way of thinking, but I fear I cannot put on paper all I would wish say to thee, so must wait until thee return if there another week, thee would have an oppor-tunity of hearing much, I was so occupied with horses & Mrs Mark I saw little of. Florence, her eyes seem poor, are they made of? I believe I want an angel for my "sunbeam Nancy"? & I sometimes pray he may get the right one, may God bless and keep thee darling. I bring thee safely home to the arms of thy devoted mother Jane A Chapman

And Sarah Nancy a laugh at the way thee arranges up hair
